Announcement of Updated Modutrol IV Motor Cross Reference for Honeywell and Competitive Motors

Building Control Systems is pleased to announce the completion of the NEWLY updated Mod IV Series 2 cross reference (#63-2691). This cross reference is intended to aid in selection of new and replacement Modutrol IV Motors. The updated cross reference includes Mod IV Series 1 to Mod IV Series 2, Mod III and competitive information. This updated cross reference is shipped with the DAV catalog.

Cross Reference Updates

This is the first published update since 1992. The Modutrol IV Motor cross reference includes updates related to the June 2006 introduction of the Series 2 motors and updated competitive information. The cross reference quickly identifies the part you need, whether you are looking for a Honeywell part or a Honeywell part to replace another manufacturer's part.
